at home if he gives me. I hear as much of you as I can. I I know we would have enjoyed together. I am counting on you and to help you. I am feeling so well.
I will stay with the girls this summer. Can't you come home? I'll write you always. Let's keep it up. Edith for I love you so much. I'll write you a letter soon.
You give darling love and the girls two full love and kisses to daddy. Mom.

My dear Edith - Just finished reading your dear postal I feel like I want the crystal ball for we are going to have to go home with out seeing you and your little ones again. I have thought of you all so much and wondered why I did not hear from you. Yesterday I was packing my trunk and I came across your little ice wool shawl I did it up and thought I'd take it into Nettie's Sister Mill too and if she is not there I will mail it to you.
Well there is no one talking Edith but we leave here to-morrow night go to Salt Lake. Stay there a couple days and on home. Business was so dull every place Miller went he decided to give it up.
Mr. Siefert has not been able to get any thing and says he may be able to get started into something
